DESTRUCTION. - In 1860 what is known as the Red River country produced 600,000 bales of cotton, 240,000 hogsheads of sugar, and 317,-000 barrels of molasses. This year these crops will be but a small per cent. of the figures given, the levees on the Arkansas and Mississippi rivers being broken, the land wasted from overflow, the capitalists taxed into beggary, and the laborers engaged making laws. This is not a cheerful exhibit, but as its statistics are found in a memorial from a reconstruction convention to Congress, it cannot be said to be in spired by any desire to unduly paint the ruin wrought by Congressional madness and folly. This Red River country-portions of Louisiana, Mississippi and Arkansas-is by nature a garden of the Heperides. The cotton it produces is only less fine than Sea Island, and the quality of its sugarcane is unsurpassed. To its many advantages there is but one drawback-a break, or crevasse, in the levee-and just this very disadvantage, which neutralizes every good so bountifully vouchsafed to this region, has come in the train of this unnecessary and illegal Congressional intermeddling.

the Senate Chamber when the South Carolina Senators presented themselves to be sworn in was one of deep interest to spectators. Sawyer held a certificate under the "great seal," but he had been voted for by the Democrats in, the Legislature, and had defeated the negro favorite. Hence he was followed by a protest which was presented by Senator Howard, charging that Sawyer had been a blockade-runner during the war and could not take the iron-clad oath. Here Senator Davis called attention to the testimony taken before a commission appointed by President Lincoln, and asked why the Senator should object to Sawyer, when the same objection would lie with much greater force against an ex-General of the army-now known as the hero of Big Bethel and Fort Fisher. !! However, said Mr. Davis, the contest is one of comparatively little interest, since we expect soon to be able to send all these gentlemen home as unconstitutionally elected.

"SINGISTS."-We take the following from the New York Tribune: "SINGING FOR THE MILLION.

"Washington, July, 1868. "It having been proposed to organize a Society of Singing Soldiers, to be commposed of men who have served honorably in the Union army during the rebellion, and who have lost of the most celebrated a limb or been otherwise disabled, for the purpose of taking part in the political meetings in the coming campaign, for Grant, Colfax and the coming campaign, for Grant, Colfax and suitable for Parlors, Dining Rooms, Halls, &c. Victory, we, the undersigned heartily approve All orders for PAPERING Private Dwellings of the suggestion, and recommend that the plan be adopted by the National Union Republican Committee.

The signatures referred to embrace those of the Radical members of both Houses of Con-

There is a political reaction in favor of Conservatism in West Virginia. Many old Republicans are coming over. James E. Wharton, the wheel-horse of Republicanism, and Rathbone Van Winkle, son of the Senator, are said to be recent converts, and both participated in the recent State Convention.

An Arkansas editor, not distinguished for his "loyalty," thus rejoices over his admission into the Union: "Well, we are in the Union. We are truly loyal once more. Light is breaking. The sun of prosperity is shining, and we'll soon be happy. John Brown's soul is promenading rapidly. Prey on brothers!

Miscellaneous Items.

A bill has been introduced in the Senate of the Alabama Legislature to stop every suit on the different dockets that began at a period since April 18th, 1861, and up to April 18th, 1868, and make them null and void.

Good rains have fallen in portions of Middle Alabama within the last few days. Cotton has been injured by the long continued drought, and it is estimated that the corn crop has been cut off one-half.

The people of Hyde county, North Carolina, hitherto one of the most productive counties and satisfaction warranted. of that State, are at this time suffering greatly from successive disasters to their crops, so that a considerable portion of the population, unless they receive prompt assistance, are said to be in peril of starvation.

A bill has been introduced into the South Carolina Legislature reducing the amount of the bonds of officials, with a view to permit ting irresponsible parties to hold office.

The sub-committee of the committee on reconstruction in the House of Representatives, composed of Messrs. Bingham, Farnsworth and Beck, have prepared a bill for establishing a provisional government in Texas.

Rain has fallen in North Carolina in time to save most of the crops, but the corn in some places had been much injured before the rain

riage, &c., impossible. YOUNG MEN,

Especially, who have become the victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an ultimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most excellent talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Sena-tors with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to estacy the living lyre, may call with full

ORGANIC WEAKNESS Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of impropriety .-Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the payor of processing is lost scenar by that the power of procreation is lost sconer by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The System becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting were cured immediately. TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and soli-tary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage. These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Pow-er, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Neryous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil

Forebodings, Averson to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced: Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption. YOUNG MEN Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and, if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with your own.

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those, who from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin-bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity till at last the palate of the mouth or the cones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns."

It is a MELANCHOLY FACT that thou sends full victims to this terrible disease. sands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that DEADLY POISON, MF R-CURY, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable.
